

Multi-faith room: Guidance

This space has been provided for the Reuben College community, guests and visitors, of all religious faiths or none, to use for private prayer, for peaceful contemplation, or meditation.

The below guidance sets out the proper use of this multi-faith room. By using this room, you are agreeing to comply with this guidance.

A maximum of 5 people may use this space at the same time, and the room will be available for use whenever the college is open. Please note that it may also be used by the College as a refuge/welfare room in emergencies and a quiet private space for feeding mothers.

Please respect the following rules:

- Please keep the room tidy and accessible.
- Please do not remove or add items of furniture.
- When exiting the room ensure the blind and door are left open.
- Please take any personal items you have brought into the room with you when you leave.
- Please keep noise to a minimum. We understand that prayer and meditation will not always be silent, but please be respectful of others. Amplified music and singing are not permitted.
- Eating and drinking is not permitted.
- No mobile phones or other devices, unless specifically for prayer.
- No candles, incense, or naked flames of any kind.

Should you have any questions about the above guidance or a note of any additional resources needed, please contact the Events Team (events@reuben.ox.ac.uk).
